* Transfer from the airport to the Camino and back: We will provide a latest time of arrival and departure for each tour. Participants are responsible for arriving independently to the airport, where they will be picked up. Airports are the international airports closest to the starting point of the holiday.

Exceptions are Santiago and Porto that can be reached through several different airports. Transfer to first night's accommodation in these cities must be arranged independently by the participants.

** Half-board: Fare usually begins with the dinner on the first day of the holiday and ends with the breakfast on the last day of the holiday. Exceptions: Fare on rest days is not included. On the following tours, fare ends with dinner on the day of arrival at the final destination: Camino Francés - Tour 4, Camino del Norte - Tour 4, Camino Portugues and Camino Portugues Coastal Route.

On all tours on the Camino Portugues, fare begins with the first day of walking.

*** Rest days are also rest days for our tour-guides, who will only be available for emergencies. On regular days, our tour-guides do not walk with the group. They are responsible for the luggage transfer and will always be available, in case somebody needs help or wants to be picked up.
